

Regents' Commended Schools – 2004

The following 44 schools have made significant progress in both English language arts and mathematics for the past two years:

Barrington

Barrington High School

Burrillville

Burrillville High School -03-

William L. Callahan School

Chariho

Chariho Regional High School -03- -02-

Coventry

Hopkins Hill School

Cranston

Cranston High School East

Edgewood Highland School

Hope Highlands Elementary School

Hugh B. Bain Middle School

Cumberland

Cumberland High School

Cumberland Middle School

Lincoln

Lincoln Central Elementary School

Middletown

Joseph H. Gaudet School

Middletown High School

Narragansett

Narragansett High School -03-

New Shoreham

Block Island School -03- -02-

Newport

Frank E. Thompson Middle School

North Kingstown

Davisville Middle School -03- -02-
Stony Lane Elementary School

North Providence

Centredale School
North Providence High School -03-
Stephen Olney School -03- -02-

Pawtucket

Goff Junior High School
Potter-Burns School

Portsmouth

Melville Elementary School
Portsmouth High School

Providence

Textron Chamber of Commerce Academy

Smithfield

Raymond C. LaPerche School

South Kingstown

South Road Elementary
West Kingston Elementary School

Tiverton

Tiverton High School

Warwick

Cottrell F. Hoxsie School
Drum Rock Elementary School
John Greene School
Norwood School -03-
Oakland Beach Elementary School
Sherman School -03-
Warwick Veterans Memorial High School -03- -02-
Winman Junior High School

Westerly

Bradford Elementary School
Tower Street School
Westerly High School -03-

Woonsocket

Social Street School

State-Operated Schools

William M. Davies Jr. Career-Technical High School

-03- : Regents' Commended School in 2003; significant progress for three consecutive years.

-02- : Regents' Commended School in 2003 and 2002; significant progress for four consecutive years.