National School Lunch Program (NSLP)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Student not eligible</li> <li>• Free lunch</li> <li>• Reduced price lunch</li> <li>• School not participating</li> <li>• Information unavailable at this time</li> </ul>	If it is not possible to distinguish between “free” and “reduced price” for some students, code these students as being eligible for free lunch. Students in schools participating in Provisions 2 or 3 of the NSLP should be coded as “free lunch” Under Provisions 2 and 3, schools provide free lunches to all students in the school. Eligibility is determined for a base year and then not updated for 3 to 4 years or sometimes even longer. Provisions 2 and 3 make it unnecessary for schools to determine student eligibility on an individual basis, and therefore individual eligibility information is either not collected or out of date.
